ber, 1911, $29.37.

The report of the librarian shws that there are 2,128 books on the shelves. There have been purchased during the year 51 volumes, and two books have been given. The circulation for the year, representing 146 families, has been 2,506. Besides the magazines the Graphic course resular. nangazines, the Graphic comes regular-ly and is the gift of Mrs. Turner of Philadelphia. Mrs. John Wood of New York gives the Literary Digest and Will Boardman of Hartford sends the Weekly New York Times Review. Oth-er individuals frequently give odd. Weekly New York Times Review. Other individuals frequently give odd numbers of reviews, magazines and rewspapers. Among the latter received during the year have been copies of sapers from California, Australia and the Sandwich Islands. There has been collected in fines during the year $10.75. The rule regarding fines is to be strictly enforced in the future. It reads something like this: "A fine of two cents a day shall be charged on all two cents a day shall be charged on all books kept over two weeks, unless re-newed for one week, and no new book can be given out until the fine is paid." over 100 visitors from out of town have signed the register during the past year. The officers of the association elected are the same as for several years: President, Dr. F. E. Guild; vice president, Guilford Smith: secretary, Miss Josephine Bingham; treasurer, H. C. Lathrop; auditors, L. J. Hammond; librarian, Miss Julia Swift; assistant Miss Grace Retes, Savert assistant, Miss Grace Bates. Several matters of business were discussed and voted upon. Just before the close of the meeting Guilford Smith handed the litrarian a $20 gold piece to be used in buying new books, for which he was given a vote of thanks.
